

DTU

Dear DTU Student - Now you have the opportunity to Develop & demonstrate your leadership skills in a real-life case!

DTU students can sign up for the leadership development program LEADER.foraday from February 21th to March 6th 2017 for kr 2.500.

LEADER.foraday is an investment into your personal development. The leadership program is divided into two phases. In the first part of the program, you complete up to six competency modules of your choice. The modules, taught daytime, evenings and weekends, include

- Coaching workshop
- Seminars on leadership and happiness at work
- Personal profiles and types of leaders
- Real life leadership practice

Instructors at the modules are leaders and coaches from the companies shown above.

The second phase of the development program is the tournament module, where you practice your learned leadership skills in real life during a sports tournament: In one day, you guide your team of five schoolchildren through eight games of Kidsvolley. Your personal challenge will be to develop your players to their highest potential, while they focus on having fun and develop their game. Guided by your coaching, your team will agree on initial strategy and success criteria to be measured against during the games.

To learn more about LEADER.foraday, check out the program and dates or contact Mogens W. Brolin at mogens@leaderforaday.com or mob 3070 2233.

Apply for LEADER.foraday as a DTU student at www.LEADER.foraday.dk/registration/dtu by February 1st.
